

Allendale Primary School
Weekly Update 04/03/2020

Thursday 5th March - World Book Day. Children can come to school dressed as a favourite book character. The WBD tokens have been given out and they can be exchanged for one of the WBD books or used a £1 off a book of their choice.

We are delighted to share the news that Miss Honeyman had a baby girl last Thursday.

We have been gifted a limited number of brand new, very cute soft toy puppies to raise money for school. The School Council will be selling them on Friday morning of this week, £2.50 each if you would like your child to purchase one.

Y5 and Y6 are attending an indoor athletics tournament on Friday afternoon at Prudhoe High School.

Tuesday 10th March, Y5 & Y6 have another PSHE workshop with Sarah Donnison from Northumbria Police. Sarah will also be available from 8.30am in school to provide advice on domestic violence issues.

Friday 13th March 3.30pm - 5.30pm, Y4 will be hosting a film night to raise money for their Wastwater residential. The cost will be £3.00, children are invited to bring a packed tea and can change into onesies / pyjamas if they want to.

Wednesday 1st April - the PTFA will be holding their very popular Daffodil Tea on this afternoon; a chance for grandparents in particular to attend this event but any family members are welcome.

Thursday 26th March - Whole school Dance Festival from 10.00am in the Sports Hall.
